INCARDINATION

Congratulations to Rev. Enrique V. Salen on his incardination into the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. Fr. Salen is currently serving as a hospital chaplain with the Archdiocesan Catholic Chaplain Corps.

NOTICE

The Diocese of Charleston advises of its concerns regarding Fr. Abednago Vargas Rodriguez, a somascan priest of the Diocese of Yopal, Columbia who has been serving in the Diocese of Charleston. Fr. Rodriguez's faculties have been suspended by the Diocese effective December 17, 2009, having engaged in a relationship with a woman, in negation of his vow to priestly celibacy. When confronted with this allegation, Fr. Rodriguez offered to return to his home diocese in Columbia. Fr. Rodriguez holds a U.S. legal Permanent Resident Card (Green Card) and is presently in Mexico. This notice is being provided in case Fr. Rodriguez decides to apply for priestly ministry elsewhere in the United States. For more information, contact the Office of Bishop Robert E. Guglielmone, Diocese of Charleston, 843-853-2130.

To: All Pastors

My brother priest:

In the 25th chapter of the Gospel of St. Matthew, Our Lord states very clearly that an essential element of the mission of the Church is to provide the basic necessities of life to our brothers and sisters in their time of need. Clothing the naked, feeding the hungry, visiting the sick and imprisoned and welcoming the alien is required to be a faithful follower of Jesus.

Each parish of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston does much to address the needs of the people who live within their area. However, there are many people whose needs cannot be met by the parish alone. For this reason the Archdiocese supports archdiocesan-wide social service agencies like Catholic Charities, San Jose Clinic and St. Vincent de Paul Society, to name a few. Like most charities, these organizations provide a tremendous service, but find raising sufficient amounts of funds a great challenge.

The collection taken at all Ash Wednesday Masses and services will be used to support Archdiocesan Social Ministries. Beginning the Season of Lent by recalling the needs of our neighbors and offering alms for their benefit will help ensure that we enter this penitential season with the proper disposition.

I would ask that you encourage your parishioners to sacrificially contribute to the Archdiocesan Social Ministries Collection scheduled for February 17 (Ash Wednesday). With shrinking governmental and foundation funding, the only way these social service organizations will be able to continue the level of support that is needed, is if our own archdiocesan family is generous in its contribution.

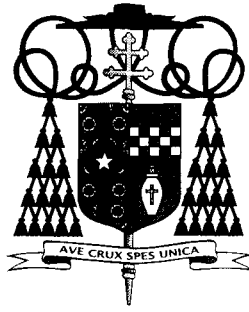

Please be assured of my deepest gratitude for your strong support of this important collection. With prayerful best wishes for a truly spiritual Lenten season, I am

Fraternally in Christ,

To: All Pastors

My brother priest:

The annual National Collection for the Black and Indian Missions is scheduled for the weekend of February 20-21. The theme for this collection is "Evangelization – Strengthening the faith, Continuing the Legacy, Sharing the Mission."

The Catechism of the Catholic Church beautifully teaches us that the Lord's missionary mandate is grounded in the eternal love of the Most Holy Trinity: "The Church on earth is by her nature missionary since, according to the plan of the Father, she has as her origin the mission of the Son and the Holy Spirit. The ultimate purpose of mission is none other than to make all people share in the communion between the Father and the Son in their Spirit of love."

Many churches and schools in the Native and African American communities depend on the annual evangelization grants to continue their programs and pastoral activities. When we support the National Collection, we make a difference in the faith lives of our Black and Indian brothers and sisters and help to promote a sense of solidarity with the many priests, religious, deacons and laity who serve these communities.

Please encourage your parishioners to give generously and in doing so bear faithful witness to the message of Christ's Gospel of love and redemption in the Black and Indian missions in the United States.

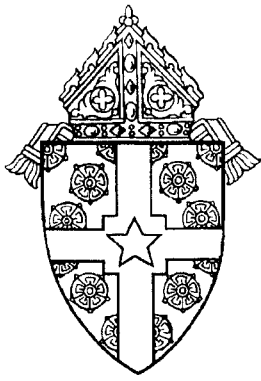

With prayerful best wishes, I am

Fraternally in Christ,
