MINISTRY TO PRIESTS

- 1 The Lenten Day of Recollection is scheduled for April 12, 2011, beginning at 1:30 pm, at St. Mary Seminary. The reflection will be offered by Most Rev. Wm. Michael Mulvey, Bishop of Corpus Christi.
- 2 To all priest mentors as well as archdiocesan priests ordained in 2008, 2009, 2010 and 2011 and 4th year seminarians, please mark your calendar for the Overnight Early Mentoring Program to be held at Holy Name Retreat Center on August 17-18, 2011.

SUMMER REPLACEMENT PRIEST - PLAN EARLY

If you plan a vacation from June to late August, please begin now to look for priests to cover your Masses.

Though priests are responsible for finding their own replacements, if the visiting priest is without faculties in this Archdiocese, he must be approved for ministry from the Chancellor. The visiting priest must provide a recent letter from his bishop or religious superior stating that he is a priest in good standing and has permission to be in the Archdiocese.

DISCALCED CARMELITE NUNS

The Discalced Carmelite Nuns are a cloistered community in New Caney, Texas, and have long been a part of the Religious Communities in the Archdiocese. One of the ways they generate revenue to sustain themselves is through the distribution of communion hosts. I encourage you to consider supporting these nuns who have dedicated their lives to prayer and contemplation. They can be reached at 281-399-0270 or by fax at 281-689-3615.

ADULT CONFIRMATION

Parishes are encouraged to have a separate program for adult Catholics seeking to be confirmed. The Adult confirmations will be on Pentecost Sunday, June 12, 2011. Priests do not have the faculty to confirm an adult unless they are being received into the church (by baptism or profession of faith) at the same ceremony. A list of parishes offering classes is published in the Texas Catholic Herald, the weekly Chancery Advisory and on the Archdiocesan Website.

CHANCERY HOLIDAYS

The Chancery will be closed Holy Thursday afternoon, April 21, Good Friday, April 22 and Easter Monday, April 25, 2011 for the Easter Holidays

RETIRED PRIESTS

Please remember the retired priests who reside at the Pope John XXIII Priest Retirement Residence, Maloney Hall and the retirement houses of the religious order priests. These men would benefit greatly from the prayers and periodic visits of their brother priests.

DISASTER MANAGEMENT UPDATE

Thanks to all Pastors and Parishes who have completed their disaster recovery plans. For those who have not yet completed the item below, Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston Disaster Recovery Coordinator Deacon Charlie Duck and others will be leading an information session at St. Mary's Seminary auditorium on Wednesday, April 6 at 7pm. This information session is designed to assist Disaster Coordinators with the following:

Document and post the Parish Disaster Recovery Plan and contact information on the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston computer system.

Please encourage your Disaster Recovery Coordinator to attend the above-noted information session if they need assistance. If you have already completed the above-noted step, there is no need for attendance at the information session noted above.

Please call or email Deacon Charlie Duck at 713.652.4484/cduck@archgh.org if you have further questions.

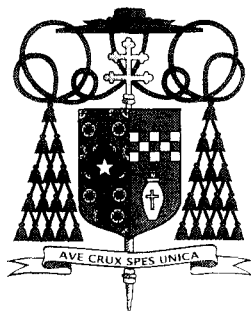

Thank you for your support on this important matter.

WANTED

The Missionaries of Little Flower, a new religious community in the Archdiocese, is looking for a tabernacle for their convent chapel. If any parish has a tabernacle they would like to donate, please contact St. Lawrence Erupathil, M.L.F., at 281-456-3452.

NOTICE

Most Rev. Gustavo Rodriguez Vega, Bishop of Nuevo Laredo advises that Father Pedro Molina Martinez, a priest of the Diocese of Nuevo Laredo, has been granted a leave of absence without faculties. It seems that Father Molina has appeared in several parishes of Monterrey and Texas requesting to celebrate Mass. He should not be allowed to offer priestly ministry in the Archdiocese. If you hear Father Molina is in the Archdiocese please call the Chancellor's office at 713-659-5461.

My brother priests:

During the Season of Lent, every Christian thinks of the Holy Land. All of us have a favorite bible story that brings that ancient land to life. But the reality of the Holy Land today often does not match the scenes in our imagination.

We are called to support Christianity in the Holy Land. Today, schools and parishes are signs of peace and hope. Shrines in Bethlehem, Nazareth, Jerusalem and many other locations welcome Christian pilgrims. The church in the Holy Land provides housing and food for the poor.

At the recent Synod of Bishops on the Middle East, a special commitment was made to help keep Christianity alive in the Holy Land. Because of the special challenges that Christians face in the Holy Land, many families emigrate in search of a better life.

All Christians are called to assist our brothers and sisters who now live in the land that was sanctified by the Lord's life, death and resurrection.

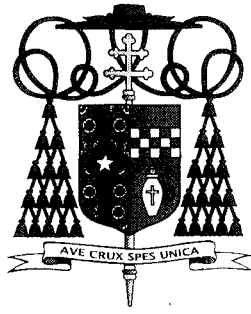

Please encourage your parishioners to support Christianity in the Holy Land by making a donation to the Holy Land Collection on Good Friday, April 22. It is a Pontifical Collection; that is requested by Pope Benedict XVI. Holy Land Christians, along with all the clergy and religious working there, deeply appreciate your help.

My brother priest:

The 2011 Catholic Home Missions Appeal is scheduled for the weekend of April 30-May 1. The commitment of the Church in poor dioceses across the country is not without challenge, as many of the parishes in these mission dioceses are unable to support their core ministries. Many parishes are also separated by long distances or rough terrain and face the realities of poverty and priest shortages.

Sustaining pastoral work in poorer dioceses in the United States is made possible through our support of the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. This Appeal supports essential pastoral outreach in home mission dioceses: evangelization, seminary formation, aid to parishes, and lay ministry training.

For more information on the Catholic Home Missions and the dioceses and eparchies funded by the Catholic Home Missions Appeal, please visit www.usccb.org/nationalcollections.

Please encourage your parishioners to give generously to the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. The Church in the United States needs our support. Together we can strengthen the Church at home.

With prayerful best wishes, I am

My Brother Priests,

I would like to personally invite you and your youth to make plans to attend our 55th Archdiocesan Youth Conference which is the annual gathering of high school youth of the Archdiocese of Galveston-Houston. Organized by the Office of Youth Ministry, it will be held July 15-17, 2011 at the Hilton Americas in downtown Houston. This year's theme is "Rooted in Christ".

As examples of the living Christ, it is imperative that we make ourselves present to our young church that look to us for support, guidance, and love as they deal with the pressures and issues of an ever changing society. As priests, we offer to our youth the timeless message of faith and hope that can only be found in Christ. As part of our ministry, we should also listen to what our young members are saying about their ideals, dreams and gifts which continue to renew the church. "The Church also needs this renewal! She needs your faith, your idealism and your generosity, so that she can always be young in the Spirit (cf. Lumen Gentium 4). The Church especially needs the gifts of young people, all young people. She needs to grow in power of the Spirit who even now gives joy to your youth and inspires you to serve the Lord with gladness." (Benedict XVI: Homily of His Holiness Benedict XVI at World Youth Day 2008 – Austria)

Although I understand that our youth have many programs and opportunities for faith development throughout the summer both at home and abroad, please be aware that it is my strong desire that you, your youth and their leaders will make this conference a top priority as the primary Archdiocesan gathering for high school youth. Your youth ministry leaders will also received a letter from me inviting them to this event – with its focus on evangelization. Please take the time to discuss with them the importance of your parish's participation in this gathering of the local church and my desire that they are present. Do not allow finances to exclude participation. The Youth Office will assist where able.

I have directed the Office of Youth Ministry to follow-up with all parishes to gauge the anticipated participation of each parish. This is being done on my behalf.

Finally, I would also like to invite you to join me in being present during the weekend at various events in particular the Liturgies and especially the Sacrament of Reconciliation. You may contact the Office of Youth Ministry for the complete schedule of the weekend to discern your presence. If you are able to attend or have any questions, please feel free to contact Norma Torok at the Office of Youth Ministry 713-741-8723.

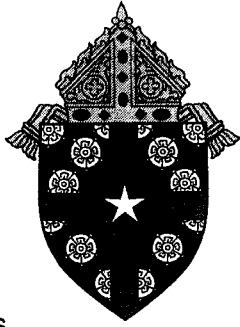

With prayerful best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Re: Notes on Lent and Triduum

LENT – COVERING OF CROSSES AND IMAGES

"In the Dioceses of the United States of America, crosses in the church may be covered from the conclusion of the Mass for Saturday of the Fourth Week of Lent until the end of the celebration of the Lord's Passion on Good Friday. Images in the church may be covered from the conclusion of the Mass for Saturday of the Fourth Week of Lent until the beginning of the Easter Vigil". This was approved by the USCCB in November 2001, granted recognitio by the Holy See, and has been in effect since April 2002.¹

DRAINING BAPTISMAL FOUNTS

Holy water fountains should be drained following the Mass of the Lord's Supper on Holy Thursday and remain empty until filled in preparation for the Easter Vigil when the water will be blessed. It is improper to drain the fountains for the duration of the season of Lent as the faithful do not fast from sacraments and/or sacramentals.

THE EASTER VIGIL

The Easter Vigil, the first Mass of Easter, is celebrated in the night between April 23 and April 24, in 2011. The law of the Church is that the celebration of the Easter Vigil is celebrated at night. The General Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar, number 21, states:

The Easter Vigil, during the holy night when Christ rose from the dead, ranks as the "mother of all vigils." Keeping watch, the Church awaits Christ's resurrection and celebrates it in the sacraments. Accordingly, the entire celebration of this vigil should take place at night, that is, it should either begin after nightfall or end before the dawn of Sunday.

This instruction is to be understood in the strictest sense.² In 2005, the United States revised the rule for Day Light Saving which will begin on the second Sunday of March beginning in 2007. Consequently, the Easter Vigil liturgy in 2011 may not begin until 8:30 p.m.

¹ This was originally proposed as an adaptation to General Instruction 318; however, as was noted at the time, this belongs in the rubrics for Holy Week in the Missal itself, and thus it does not appear in the General Instruction of the Roman Missal.

² "The entire celebration of the Easter Vigil takes place at night. It should not begin before nightfall; it should end before daybreak on Sunday". (Caeremoniale episcoporum n. 332; Roman Missal, The Easter Vigil, n. 3.) This rule is to be taken according to its strictest sense. Reprehensible are those abuses and practices which have crept into many places in violation of this ruling, whereby the Easter Vigil is celebrated at the time of day that it is customary to celebrate anticipated Sunday Masses. (Eucharisticum mysterium, (25 May 1967) n. 28; AAS 59 (1967), 556-557.)

SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER – DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

The Congregation for Divine Worship decreed (May 23, 2000) that “throughout the world, the Second Sunday of Easter will receive the name Divine Mercy Sunday, a perennial invitation to the Christian world to face, with confidence in divine benevolence, the difficulties and trials that human kind will experience in the years to come.”

The essential celebration consists in the celebration of the liturgy of the Second Sunday of Easter during which the homily should focus on the scripture readings of the day. It should be noted that the three cycles of Scripture readings and the prayers of the day are all centered on the forgiveness of sins and God’s infinite mercy. Additional celebrations are permitted including a Holy Hour with Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Private prayer includes the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

In a decree dated August 3, 2002, the Apostolic Penitentiary announced that in order “to insure that the faithful would observe this day with intense devotion, the Supreme Pontiff himself established that this Sunday be enriched with a plenary indulgence.” The plenary indulgence is granted under the usual conditions (sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer for the intentions of the Supreme Pontiff) to the faithful who, on that day, in any church or chapel, in a spirit that is completely detached from the affection of a sin, even a venial sin, take part in the prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy, or who, in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament exposed or reserved in the tabernacle, recite the Our Father and the Creed, and add a devout prayer to the merciful Lord Jesus (e.g., Merciful Jesus, I trust you!).

April 21, Holy Thursday (during the day), Lenten Weekday [6]

- Only Masses permitted are Chrism Mass and the Evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper.
- Exceptions to this are reviewed on a case by case basis by the Cardinal.
- It is not fitting that baptisms and confirmation be celebrated (except in danger of death). (PS 27)
- Ritual Masses are not permitted (GIRM 372)
- A Funeral Mass may not be celebrated (GIRM 380; OCF 178)
- A Funeral Liturgy Outside Mass may be celebrated (OCF 178)
- Ideally, all marriages (including convalidations) should be celebrated before Holy Week.
- The Rite of Marriage during Mass may not be celebrated
- The Rite of Marriage Outside Mass may be celebrated. (GIRM 372, RM 11)
- Communion distributed only during Mass, but may be brought to the sick at any hour of the day. (Sacramentary p. 135; EWOM 16a)

THE EASTER TRIDUUM

April 21 – Holy Thursday Evening: Mass of the Lord’s Supper

- Mass marks the end of the Lenten fast and the start of the Paschal fast. (PS 39)
- Sufficient number of hosts are prepared for Communion to the sick and for the Liturgy of the Lord’s Passion. (Sacramentary p.135, PS 48)
- There is no prescribed number of individuals whose feet are washed. Participants may be women, youth and children as well as men. The community may take part in the foot washing presuming the liturgy is properly prepared. (BCL newsletter, Feb, 1987)

- Stripping the altar privately after Mass does not include the removal of the Altar, Ambo, or Presider's Chair. Holy water fonts may be drained and cleaned to be refilled after baptisms on Holy Saturday. Crosses may be covered with red or purple fabric. Candles should not be lit before sacred images. (PS 57, CDW Prot No 569/00/L)
- Church bells are to remain quiet after the Gloria in Evening Mass on Holy Thursday to the Gloria in the Easter Vigil."(PS 50)

April 22 – Good Friday, Celebration of the Lord's Passion

- A Funeral Mass may not be celebrated (GIRM 380)
- A Funeral Liturgy Outside Mass may be celebrated. "Funerals are to be celebrated without singing, music, or the tolling of bells" (PS 61).
- The celebration of marriage (including convalidation) is forbidden (PS 61; OCM 32)
- Communion may be given only at the celebration of the Lord's Passion, but may be brought at any hour of the day to the sick who cannot participate in this service. (Sacramentary p. 167; PS 59; EWOM 16b)
- Cross vs. Crucifix. The ritual text clearly refers to the wood of the cross which is the instrument of our salvation. However, it is clear that the use of the crucifix is mentioned in the middle ages. A cross without corpus is preferred but a crucifix may be used. Nonetheless, only a single cross or crucifix should be used for the veneration. (PS 68, 69)
- The minister for the Good Friday liturgy of the Celebration of the Lord's Passion is a priest. The liturgy of Good Friday is linked to the Holy Thursday Mass of the Lord's Supper and the Easter Vigil.

April 23 – Holy Saturday

- Aside from the Easter Vigil, Holy Communion may be given only as Viaticum. Regular communion calls to the sick, except for Viaticum, are not to occur. (Sacramentary p. 167; EWOM 16c)
- The celebration of marriage (including convalidation) is forbidden (PS 75, OCM 32)
- A Funeral Mass may not be celebrated (GIRM 380)
- A Funeral Liturgy Outside Mass may be celebrated. (GIRM 380, OCF 178)
- Preparation Rites, e.g., Recitation of the Creed, Ephphetha, etc. (RCIA, 185)
- Easter Vigil liturgy in 2011 may not begin until 8:30 p.m. "The entire celebration of the Easter Vigil takes place at night. It should not begin before nightfall and it should end before daybreak on Sunday.' This rule is to be taken according to its strictest sense." (PS 78)
- The Paschal Candle is to remain in the sanctuary near the ambo or the altar from the Easter Vigil until Pentecost evening prayer. (PS 99)

April 24, Easter Sunday

- The Rite of Marriage during Mass may not be celebrated, unless it is the Mass of the Day (this includes Masses after 4:00 p.m. on the evening before) (GIRM 372, RM 11)
- Prayers, Preface, Blessing and Readings assigned to the liturgical day
- No reading may be substituted (RM 11)
- The Nuptial Blessing is given
- The Rite of Marriage Outside Mass may be celebrated

EASTER SEASON

April 25-May 1, Octave of Easter, Monday of the First Week of Easter, through Second Sunday of Easter

- Each day is a Solemnity (GNLY 24)
- The Rite of Marriage during Mass may not be celebrated unless it is the Mass of the Day (this includes Masses after 4:00 p.m. on the evening before) (GIRM 372, RM 11)
- Prayers, Preface, Blessing and Readings assigned to the liturgical day
- One reading may be substituted from the Rite of Marriage
- The Nuptial Blessing is given
- The Rite of Marriage Outside Mass may be celebrated
